ALTITUDE SERIES

PINOT NOIR ROSÉ

VINTAGE 2020

VINTAGE

The 2020 growing season began very warm experiencing extreme heat in the early days. The temperatures dropped during January and February and then developed into a typical mild days and cool evenings pattern which gave allowed for great fruit ripening and ensured great acid retention.

WINEMAKING

The Pinot Noir fruit was picked in the cool of the night and pressed as soon as it arrived at the winery. The juice was then clarified. Two different yeast strains were added to ensure phenomenal lifted red fruit character and excellent mouthfeel. Once the fermentation was complete the wine was filtered and bottled to ensure purity and freshness.
